Make plans now to attend
The Case Files/SEATEC Workshop

August 8, 9 and 10, 2001
Montgomery Bell State Park
Burns, TN

(Just 20 minutes outside of Nashville)

This workshop will provide each participant with information on:
Case-based Instruction in Engineering and Information Technologies
Problem-based Learning
Using and Assessing Case Studies in the Technologies Classroom
Developing Case Studies for Your Courses

Each workshop participant will:

- ◆ Learn from nationally recognized experts in Case-based Instruction and Problem-based learning
- ◆ Receive actual cases that can be used in the classroom
- ◆ Learn how to use cases effectively

Applications for workshop attendance can be obtained from the SEATEC website at www.nsti.tec.tn.us/seatec

You may fax or mail the applications to Tricia McKeon at
Nashville State Technical Institute
120 White Bridge Road
Nashville, TN 37209-4515
Fax 615.353.3713
no later than April 20, 2001.

ONLY 50 applicants from around the nation will be accepted to attend this workshop.

Applicants will be notified of acceptance via e-mail on April 27, 2001

SEATEC will provide lodging, meals, conference registration and conference materials for each applicant accepted to attend this workshop.

Each participant will need to provide his/her own travel expenses.
